Draft Programme ERIH Annual Conference 2019

16th to 18th October, Berlin, Germany

Excursion 3:

9.45 Departure from the Museum (Deutsches Technikmuseum) by bus

10.30-12.30 Visit to buildings of the former Tempelhof Airport

(Guided tours in German and English)

From the dark National Socialist Epoch during which the iconic 1930s terminal building was constructed, through its key role in the 1948 Berlin Airlift, to the regular air traffic in the West Berlin of the post-war period: Tempelhof is more than a monument and landmark of civil engineering - the building is today a legendary symbol of hope and freedom.

Since the cessation of operations in 2008, the 1.2 km long building (the largest monument in Europe) has been used as a location for companies as well as a versatile event location, successively renovated and revitalized.

Lunch packets provided

14.15 Transfer to main station

(S9 to Airport Schoenefeld, Express Bus TXL to Airport Tegel)

Option: After lunch you have the opportunity to participate in the 7th Berlin Forum for Industrial Culture and Society. Title "Tempelhof Airport - European Heritage: Value and Valuation". The language of the conference is German. For more information see at the website www.industriekultur.berlin or contact the bzi.kontakt@industriekultur.berlin
